

Welcome to the Application for the HACIA Democracy 2022 Press Corps and NGOs Program! This year, the Press Corps & NGOs Program is divided into 2 categories: Roving Reporters and NGO Representatives. Both positions offer delegates the chance to participate in a wide range of HACIA Democracy committees and events in a professional capacity. Similarly, all delegates will receive training with different mediums of editing software, including formatting print materials, and website design and publication.

Roving Reporters: The role of free media in preserving and encouraging democratic practices has been long established as a critical factor in defining democracy, and roving reporters encapsulate this spirit during HACIA Democracy. Each reporter will:

- Be assigned an influential news or media outlet that is currently active in Latin America.
- Have the ability to visit and influence each of HACIA Democracy's 15 committees.
- Write articles to be published in The Delegate, HACIA's online and print newspaper.
- Be responsible for photographing the conference, contributing pictures for each story.

Your application must be submitted by your Faculty Advisor when he or she completes the HACIA Democracy Registration Form for your school. If you have any questions, please e-mail Kevin Simauchi, the Director of the Press Corps at press_corps@hacia-democracy.org.

Good luck!
